Foreword

'Lord, Keep My Memory Green'

The class of 1969 has completed its final year at County High. Our yearbook is a glimpse at the series of dreams and realities of our student body during this past year. It is a picture book of students and teachers, a diary of their activities and happenings. The 1969 Countiana is a memory book for the future.

Dedication

The results of the hard work of our Janitors is obvious by the appearance of HCHS. This group, however, does not often receive the proper praises for a job so well done. The Class of 1969 wishes to show their appreciation to the head of this group. For his devotion to this high school, the 15th Edition of the Countiana is dedicated to Mr. Sam Saalwaechter.

Principal

Henderson County faculty and students began the new school year with a welcome for our new principal, Mr. Don Chapman. Mr. Chapman came to HCHS as an experienced administrator and soon became known as a strong and fair principal. We are fortunate to have him and wish him continued success in his most difficult job.

Janitors

This year Henderson County High School climaxes its 15th and last year in its present facility.

It is remarkable how well our school has been maintained throughout these years.

This is indeed a tribute to our Janitorial staff for the excellent job that they have done.

Sam Saalwaechter, head janitor

Ann Golday, head cook

The daily preparation of meals for over 1000 students is also a mammoth task. When one considers this difficulty in addition to our limited facilities it becomes truly remarkable how well our cooks work to fulfill their responsibility to our school.

Obituary

In crystalline silence

we waft off into the yawning, piercingly black abyss.

Slowly, as if in a dream,

an old-fashioned movie,
or trapped in our own warped imaginations,
we glide down smoothly.

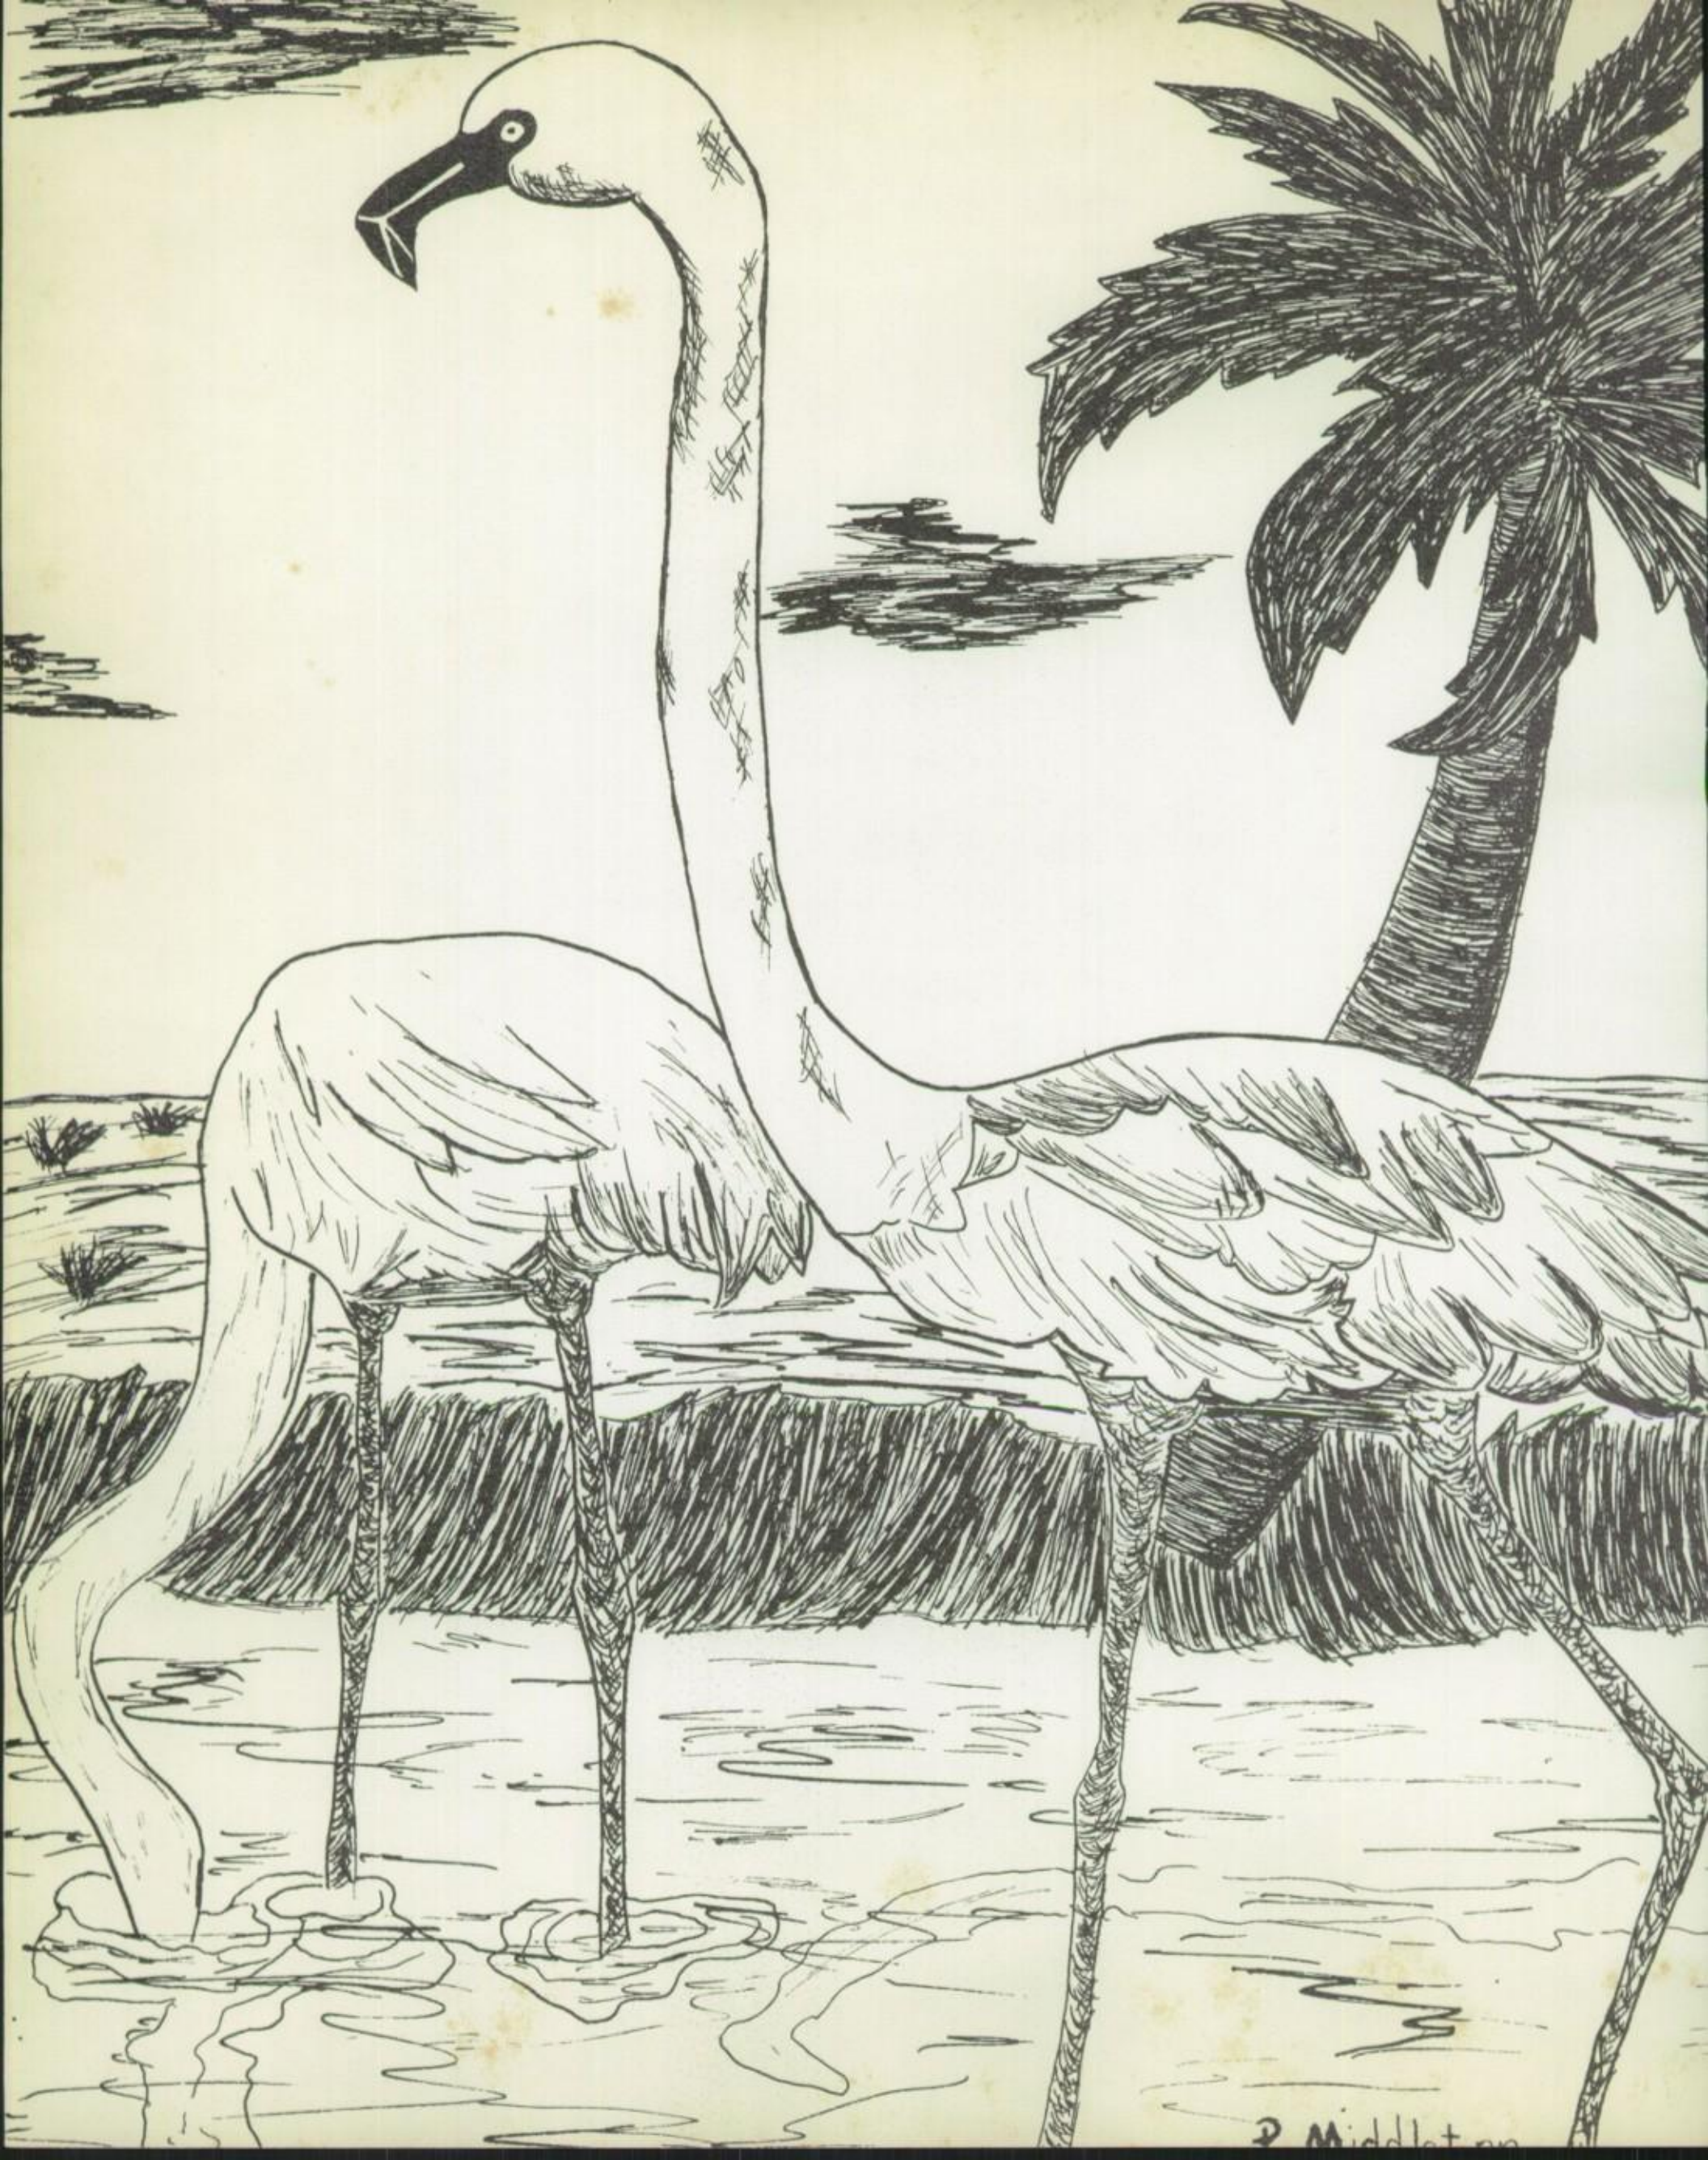

No one guesses that we,

who were so blithe,
are drifting into this oblivion.

Nothing we do can halt

or alter our weird descent;
instead, everything seems to hasten our waltz toward the unknown.

Jane McConathy

The Zeitgeist

I chanced to meet a man,
Who was born tomorrow.
"Kind sir," he informed me,
"I will die yesterday."
I merely shrugged.
And turned left at Thursday.

J. M. Taylor

Blue-Grey

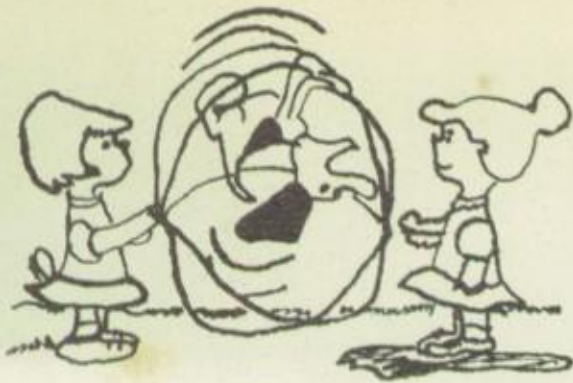

Kentucky horizon, stretching as far as the eye can see,
The red sunset at the edge of the earth,
And the melting of sky and tree
Into one inseparable band of blue-grey.

Blue-grey, as once the opposing armies clashed,
The separate blue and separate grey slashed
At one another, and red mixed in,
Until blue and grey were united once again.

A winter scene, sky-colored snow and trees
Of grey, that seem to mean
That blue and grey together should be;
One inseparable band of blue-grey.

Cross-Country Colonels

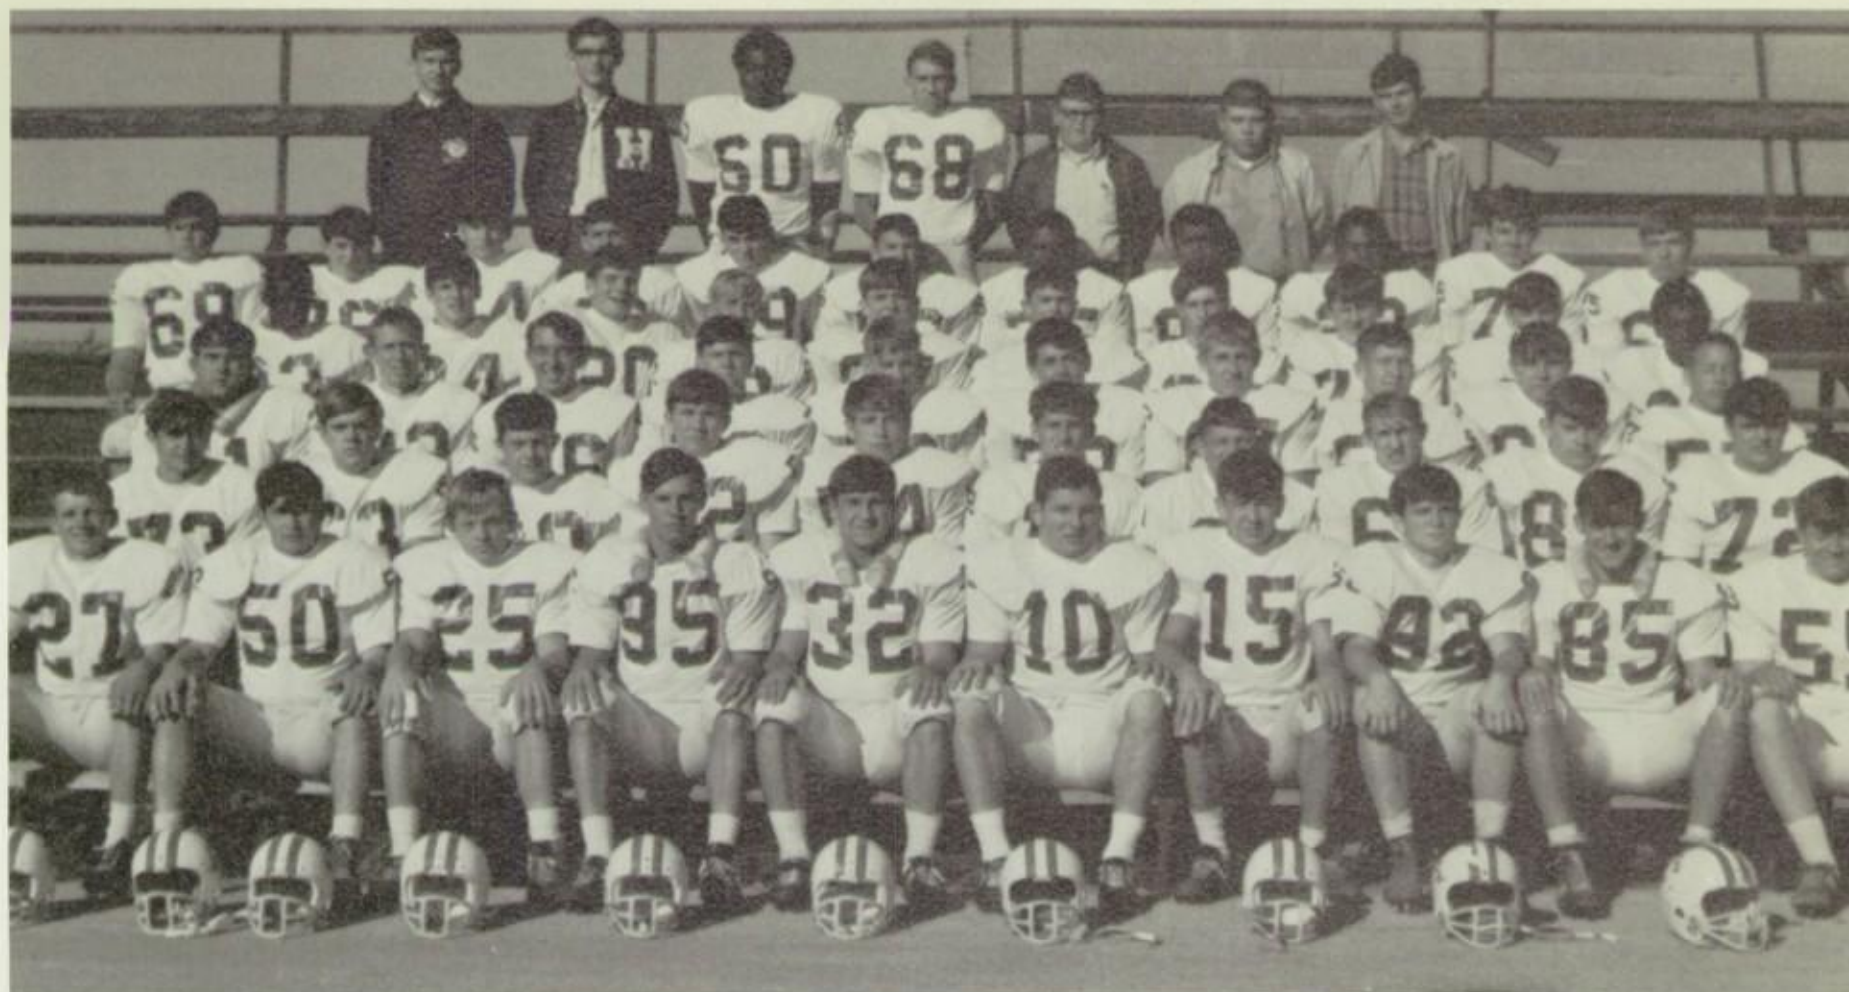

Cross country is a rugged, challenging sport. It contains both team and individual competition and involves a two mile run over rough terrain. The 1968 cross country colonels, led by senior Danny Lovell, provided strong competition for such high school powers as Owensboro Senior, Paducah Tilghman, and Evansville Harrison.

Even though the mighty Colonels were hampered by injuries for most of the season, their fighting spirit was always noticable when they took the field. The Colonels had to contend with some of the most powerful teams in the state since Big Eight foes Daviess County, Owensboro Sr. and Madisonville were ranked in the top ten teams in the state.

The season opener with powerful Louisville DeSalles saw the Colonels racing to an upset victory 26-20. Next the high spirited Colonels took on 10th ranked Daviess County. Although the Colonels obtained a 6-0 lead the Panthers retaliated and won 28-12. The following week at Owensboro Catholic, the stubborn Aces upset the Colonels 7-0. The injury ridden Colonels fell to 4th ranked Madisonville 28-0, and 3rd ranked Owensboro Sr. 41-13 before returning to the winning column, where they used a tough defense and hard running offense to rap Ohio County 36-0 and where Coach Benson's Colonels dominated the game to rescue a 41-13 victory from North Warren.

The stage was now set for the Big Rivalry: County vs City. Both teams entered the game with 3-4 records and were as evenly matched as two peas in a pod. City scored in the first half and the Colonels were down 7-0 as the half ended. Benson got the Colonel-machine in high gear during the second half with the superb running and passing of quarterback Leo Peckenpaugh, the shifty hips of Douglas Calhoun, and the able receiving hands of Hewlett Posey enabled the Colonels to go on the scoreboard with a touchdown. But the point after failed and City, with the help of the good Lord (and a man in a striped shirt) held the Colonels for a victory. Although the Colonels record didn't show it, they were a never say die team who returned to beat Union County 26-14 before closing the season with a win over Caldwell County 22-13.

The Colonels had a great team this year with many talented players. It took the toughest conference in the state to deprive them of an excellent season.

Varsity 1968-69

Left to right. Ronnie Eblen, Richie Meuth, Ricky Morris, Kenneth Dixon, Larry Green, Charles Alexander, Leo

Peckenpaugh, Hewlett Posey, Phil Pritzker, Monte Ward.

Coaches

Kenny Tegethoff, Marion Hill, Jim Guess.

Due to injuries, inexperience, and lack of height, the 1968-69 fighting Colonels had their problems early in the season. Playing against such highly ranked teams as Providence, Webster County, Todd County, Union County and Earlinton, the County Cagers experienced much frustration before finally routing cross-town rival Henderson City by a score of 62 to 43 in the opening round of the Henderson Holiday Tourney. Two games later the "Fierce Five" completed their sweep of city competition by rallying over a strong Holy Name team to notch a 71 to 59 victory for the third win of the campaign.

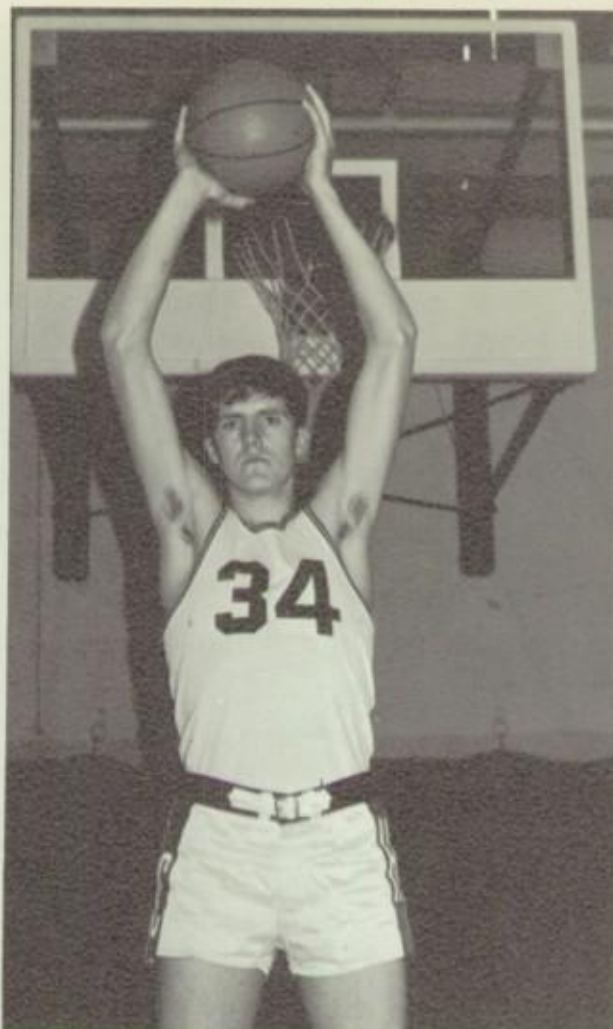

Coach Guess' starting lineup varied during the early season due to injuries to several key players including senior Leo Peckenpaugh and Junior rebounding ace Charles Alexander. The center position was held by Senior Larry Green, while 6'1" Senior Leo Peckenpaugh, 6'1" Junior Charles Alexander, 6' Junior Hewlett Posey, and 6'1" Sophomore Kenneth Dixon saw action as forwards. Along with Peckenpaugh and Posey who also saw action as guards were 5'10" Juniors Monte Ward and Ronnie Eblen.

In spite of their early season setbacks the Colonels plan to be ready to pull the big upset at tournament time. Though the 6th District Championship will not be an easy goal to attain, it was not easy last year when the Colonels pulled three upsets to capture the crown.
